THE ITINERARY

Day 1 New Zealand - Casablanca, Morocco

Today depart from Auckland for Casablanca, Morocco! Fly with Etihad Airways, Emirates, Air France, Virgin Australia, or Qatar Airways to name a few (subject to availability).

Meals included: In-Flight

Day 2 Casablanca, Morocco - Rabat (approx. 90km)

Upon arrival, you will be welcomed at the airport and transferred to the hotel in Rabat (approx. 1 hour).

Overnight: Riad Dar Elkebira or similar, Rabat

Meals included: None

Day 3 Rabat - Chefchaouen (approx. 250km)

This morning, enjoy a guided tour of Rabat with a local guide. You will take in the medieval fortification of the Chellah Necropolis in the heart of Rabat. Step back in time as you explore Rabat's original city centre and enter through the grand door of the Kasbah des Oudaias. Mostly a residential area today, take the opportunity to quietly wander the peaceful white and blue-washed streets.

From there, you'll visit the 20th-century Andalusian Gardens - a serene space away from the crowds. You will also discover the Hassan Tower, a minaret of the incomplete mosque and Mausoleum of Mohamed V - a 12th-century project which was abandoned. All that remains today is the red sandstone tower standing at 145ft (44m).

Afterwards, enjoy the scenic drive to Chefchaouen. Admire the changing scenery as the flat plains and hills transform into the rugged landscape of the Rif Mountains. Chefchaouen translates in English to 'two horns' and is named for the two peaks rising above the hillside town. Commonly referred as 'the blue city', Chefchaouen offers stunning, maze-like streets to explore. You'll enjoy time at the compact Medina area, which clings to the northern hillside. At the bottom, you will find the Plaza Outa el Hammam, home to many great restaurants, cafes and several shops.

Overnight: Riad Dar Mounir or similar, Chefchaouen

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Chefchaouen - Volubilis - Fez (approx. 250km)

This morning, spend some free time in the Blue City of Chefchaouen.

Continue your journey to Fez, on the way you will take a short detour to explore the Roman ruins at Volubilis, a UNESCO World Heritage site which was once one of the most remote parts of the Roman Empire. The Romans ruled for about 200 years and its estimated they left the region in 285 AD when the empire grew too large to control. Today, the ruins of Volubilis are home to Morocco's best-preserved Roman ruins, including large merchant homes, temples and many colourful mosaics. Enjoy a guided tour of the massive complex.

Upon arrival in Fez, check into the beautiful riad.

Please note: If you would like to dine at the Riad, please let the tour leader know in advance.

Overnight: Riad Amor or similar, Fez

THE ITINERARY

Day 5 Fez City Tour

Today, explore the city and medieval Medina on a guided city tour.

Fez is the oldest of Morocco's Imperial Cities - and arguably the most interesting to explore. The city has the most complete Medina in the Arab world and is also a World Heritage site. With your local guide, spend the morning exploring the Medina - visit Medersas (Arabic for an educational institution), and spend some time outside of the Medina walls. The visit includes Fez el Bali, Souks, Tanneries Chouara, The Al-Qarawiyyin Mosque and University, the Medersa Bou Inania, Bab Boujeloud gate, and a tour of a local Ceramics and Tilework Collective.

Overnight: Riad Amor or similar, Fez

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 6 Middle Atlas - Beni Mellal - Marrakech (approx. 490km)

Prepare for an early start today - you'll be covering a lot of ground as you head over the Middle Atlas. Keep an eye out as you travel through the cedar forest, as there's a possibility to see wild monkeys, as well as mountain lakes and Berber villages. Break the journey in Beni Mellal, where you will see the beautiful Ain Asserdoun gardens and water spring. As you head into the southern Marrakech region, stop in multiple towns before arriving in vibrant Marrakech.

Upon arrival in the city, check into the hotel. Spend the remainder of the day at leisure or perhaps visit the town-square.

In the early evening, Djemaa EL Fna (town-square and market place) comes alive with a sea of musicians, performers, snake charmers, food stalls and more. If you would prefer to enjoy from a distance, there are many cafes surrounding the square where you can sit and enjoy the spectacle with a meal (not included). Marrakech has always been a bustling city, filled with foreign sights, sounds, and smells. Nicknamed 'the red city' for the natural red ochre pigment in the walls, it holds the honour as Morocco's second-largest city.

Overnight: Riad Pachavana or similar, Marrakech

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Marrakech City Tour

After breakfast, enjoy a guided tour of this beautiful city.

Marrakech was founded by Youssef Ben Tachfine around 1070 under the Almoravid dynasty. Unlike Fez, Marrakech has Berber rather than Arab roots and history. It was once an important trading capital for tribes of the Atlas mountains. On your guided tour you will visit the old medina, the Koutoubia minaret, the famous Saadian Tombs, the Souks, Djemaa El Fna and the palace of the Bahia.

Spend time at leisure this afternoon or take the chance to visit the Majorelle Gardens (entrance not included). Not far from the hustle and bustle of the medina, you can wander these lush, expansive gardens filled with sub-tropical plants, bamboo, lilies, and palms. It's a perfect place to escape the afternoon heat for a more relaxing experience.

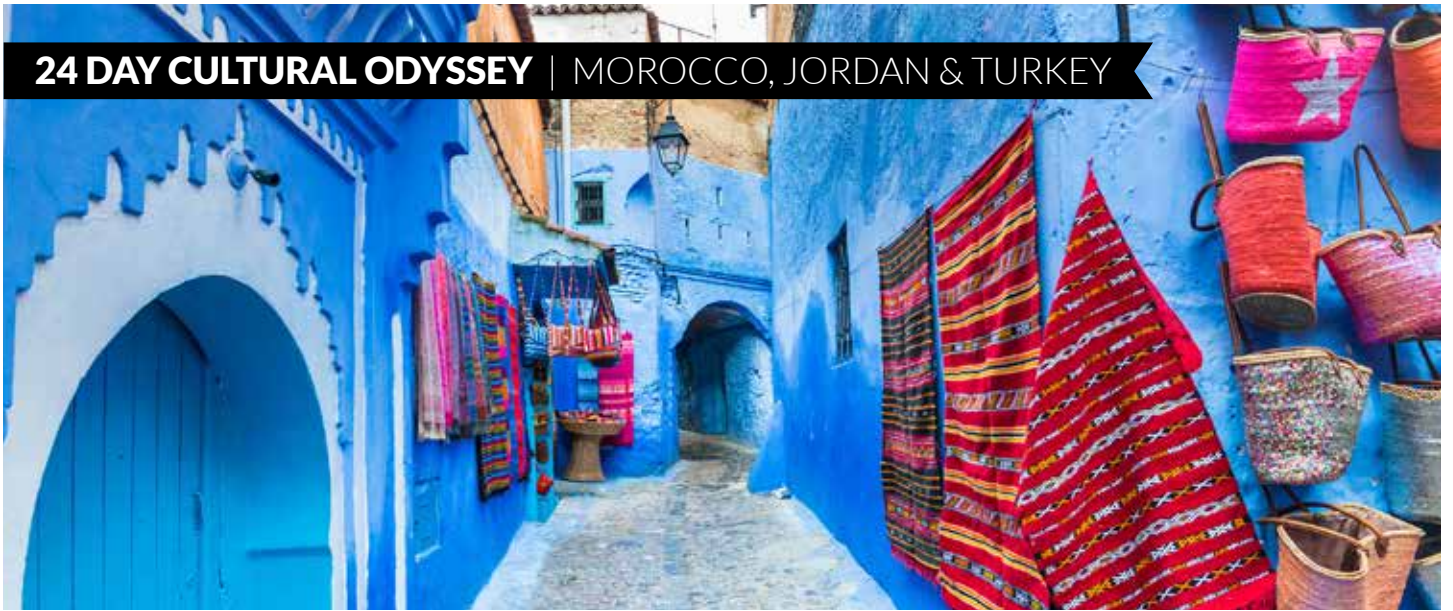

Overnight: Riad Pachavana or similar, Marrakech

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Marrakech - Casablanca (approx. 240km)

After breakfast this morning, depart for Casablanca - the modern, commercial capital of Morocco. An afternoon may Afterwards, stop in Al-Karak, known in the Kingdom of Jerusalem as 'Kerak'. Visit the 12th century Crusader/Kerak Castle on an urban hilltop. The Kerak Castle was designed to provide a watchful eye (and iron fist) over the traders and travellers crossing the lands between the Dead Sea, Damascus, Egypt, and Mecca.

Afterwards, continue to Petra for the night.

Overnight: Grand View Hotel or similar, Petra

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 12 Petra City Tour - Wadi Rum Desert (approx. 120km)

Today, visit the incredible city of Petra. Inhabited since prehistoric times, this Nabataean caravan-city, situated between the Red and the Dead Sea, was an important crossroads between Arabia, Egypt and Syria-Phoenicia. Petra is half-built, half-carved into rock, and surrounded by mountains riddled with passages and gorges. It's one of the world's most famous archaeological sites, where ancient Eastern traditions blend with Hellenistic architecture. Enjoy a tour of the magnificent site. Travel along the Siq, the main entrance which is a natural passage between two mountains, leading to the Treasury, the most elaborate temple in Petra.

In the afternoon drive towards the Wadi Rum Desert, a protected desert wilderness in southern Jordan. It features

Overnight: Ramada Resort Dead Sea or similar, Dead Sea

Meals included: Breakfast;Dinner

Day 15 Dead Sea - Amman City Tour (approx. 60km)

After breakfast, head to Amman and enjoy a city tour with a local guide.
