Day 4 Warsaw - Bialystok, Poland - Vilnius, Lithuania (approx. 470km day)

Early this morning leave Warsaw and travel onwards to Vilnius, Lithuania. Along the way enjoy a city tour in Bialystok. Bialystok is the biggest city in the north-eastern part of Poland and situated close to the border with Belarus. During the city tour you will see Branicki Palace - the former residence of the Branicki family who owned most of Bialystok in the 18th century. There is a dreamy quality to Vilnius (vil-njus). Lithuania's capital has an Old Town of rare authenticity: marvellously intact, its pebbly streets are lined with weather-worn period buildings that hide cafes, boutiques and dainty guesthouses. Though a capital city, Vilnius feels much like an overgrown village. It's carpeted with green spaces, which cover around 40% of its area, and studded with venerable Catholic and Orthodox church spires. But this is no Eastern European antique: artists, punks and a self-declared micro-nation keep Looking from above, the 50-metre wide composition resembles an impressive clock with four snowflake cogwheels and 12 glowing tables that serve as clock numerals. One doesn't have to look too far to find the inspiration for the tree's design; the clock hanging on one of Vilnius' most iconic structures – the Cathedral Square Bell Tower standing right next to the Christmas tree – is said to be over 345 years old – older than Big Ben!

Kaunas will reveal how it felt to be in independent Lithuania between two World Wars, and how this vibrant city lives today. You will start with a Castle and the Old Town remembering medieval days and then walk your way to the Centre, where the modern history of Kaunas starts. You will visit Laisves Alley, admire its old and modern architecture and find out why it was selected as a candidate to be included in the UNESCO world's heritage list.

In the afternoon, continue driving to the city of Klaipeda, the only seaport of Lithuania. Upon arrival in Klaipeda, check into the hotel and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

Overnight: Old Mill Hotel or similar, Klaipeda

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Curonian Spit Peninsula Day Trip

This morning, prepare for picturesque sand dunes, forests and tiny resort towns that used to be fishermen villages as you head out to explore the narrow Curonian Spit Peninsula on the other side of the lagoon. Today you will experience the full authenticity of this tiny, yet beautiful part of Lithuania. Take a quick ferry ride from Klaipeda to the peninsula with the first stop being the Hill of Witches. Located in the charming village of Juodkrante, on the Curonian Spit, the Hill of Witches (Raganu Kalnas in Lithuanian) is a natural forested area filled with nearly 100 carved wooden sculptures. The original sculptures were mostly carved by Samogitian folk artists (further sculptures have been added since) and illustrate Lithuanian folk tales.

Afterwards you will continue to the most western town of Lithuania, Nida, which is the best place on earth for many Lithuanians. Here you will stop for a breathtaking panorama from the Parnidis dune and enjoy a stroll by the beautiful lagoon. Nida is right on the border of Lithuania and the Russian exclave of Kaliningrad Oblast. Finish the day back in Klaipeda where you may enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 9 Klaipeda – Hill of Crosses, Lithuania - Rundale Palace, Latvia – Riga (approx. 270km day)

This morning, depart Klaipeda and travel to the Hill of Crosses which is one of the most extraordinary sites in Lithuania. The old 14th century hillfort is covered in more than 100,000 crosses that symbolize Lithuanian nationalism and beliefs. Some of the crosses are devotional, while others are memorials to many people deported to Siberia. They vary greatly in size: a few are finely carved folk-art masterpieces and some are accompanied by mournful statues of the Virgin Mary. This is definitely a place where you will learn and better understand the local community's difficult past, learn of its unshakable faith, and feel hope for the future.

Afterwards, you will reach the Latvian countryside and visit Rundale Palace. The magnificent Rundale Palace was a summer residence of the Duke of Courland and now welcomes travellers from all over the world to admire its wonderful garden and architecture. It's known as the most outstanding Baroque and Rococo art monument in nowadays Latvia. A Baroque palace cannot be imagined without the French garden, an elaborate architectural framework devised of green plantings that should manifest the triumph of art over nature. Both the palace and the garden were designed in the 16th century by an Italian architect Bartolomeo Rastrelli.

This afternoon arrive into Riga, the capital of Latvia, where you may check in and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. The Gothic spires that dominate Riga's cityscape might suggest austerity, but it's the flamboyant art nouveau that forms the flesh and the spirit of this vibrant cosmopolitan city, the largest of all three Baltic capitals. Like all northerners, it's quiet and reserved on the outside, but there is some powerful chemistry going on inside its hip bars, modern art centres and the kitchens of its cool experimental restaurants.

Overnight: Ibis Riga Centre or similar, Riga

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 10 Riga Walking City Tour & Christmas Markets

Today, enjoy a walking city tour of Riga's Old Town. In Riga, while meandering its narrow streets and ancient alleyways you will discover the must visit sites and some hidden corners. Kumu is a place for those who are interested in culture, the main building of Art Museum of Estonia, serves both as Estonia's national gallery and as a centre for contemporary art. The complex itself is a work of art - it was opened in 2006 after nearly a decade of planning and construction, and is considered a modern architectural masterpiece.
