THE OFFER

Tasmania's natural beauty is legendary. The vast expanses of untamed forest, the rugged coastline shaped by powerful surf, the diverse wildlife and awe-inspiring vistas at almost every turn... it's truly like nowhere else in Australia. Among its many highlights is the spectacular Three Capes Track - an easy to moderate trek showcasing the wonders of Cape Hauy, Crescent Bay and Cape Raoul.

This three day / two night tour is a chance to experience this unique part of the world for yourself - complete with quality lodge accommodation, knowledgeable guides, two-course dinners and more. Take in incredible vistas of Cape Hauy and Fortescue Bay, trek along the serene shores of Crescent Bay and hike to the summit of Mount Brown, see the amazing Maingon Blowhole near Port Arthur, encounter an array of native wildlife and so much more. Don't forget your camera!

3 DAY DISCOVERY PACKAGE | THREE CAPES TREK

THE ITINERARY

Day 1 Hobart - Crescent Bay & Mount Brown Trail (approx. 9km - 5hrs)

Today, you will be met by the tour guide at the nominated pick up point in Hobart and transferred to where the walking tour begins (please refer to Important Information for further details).

Tucked between the Remarkable Caves and Port Arthur, the Crescent Bay and Mount Brown track plays host to the most spectacular beach on the Tasman Peninsula. In addition to the enormous dunes and crystal clear waters of Crescent Bay, the hike to the summit of Mount Brown offers hikers vast panoramic views of the peninsulas rugged coastline.

Begin today's walk at the Remarkable Caves carpark. The first part of the hike crosses a series of sand dunes covered in coastal heath vegetation, and if you are lucky you may even spot an echidna. This section offers westerly views back towards Cape Raoul. The track then opens out into a gaping cavity known as Maingon Blowhole. The track then heads inland onto the lower knolls of Mount Brown where a series of cairns will direct your ascent. The walk up to the summit is moderately steep, with views over Cape Pillar, Tasman Island, Arthurs Peak and further south to Cape Raoul and Bruny Island.

Once back on the main track you will reach Crescent Bay. This beach is incredibly beautiful and often sparsely populated. After the day's walk, head to the accommodation for well-earned pre-dinner nibbles followed by a fabulous two-course meal prepared by your guides.

Overnight: Three Capes & Tasman Lodge, Tasman Peninsula

Meals included: Lunch;Dinner

Day 2 Cape Raoul (approx. 14km - 6hrs)

After breakfast and lunch making, begin your walk today out to Cape Raoul. Offering some of the most spectacular coastal lookouts in Tasmania, Cape Raoul is an excellent return day walk within the Tasman National Park. With only a few steep sections, the walk is a comfortable walk allowing ample time to relax and enjoy the expansive views of the surrounding Tasman Peninsular and further south to Bruny Island.

The bushland opens up with spectacular views of the incredible dolerite cliffs of the Tasman National Park. Cape Raoul is just beyond the lower plateau to the east. A short distance to the right is another open section of the cliff top allowing you a stunning view down to Shipstern Bluff, beyond to Bruny Island and Tasmania's southern coast. From these lookouts you may also have your first encounter with the intense winds the Capes are famous for (some of the strongest recorded winds in Australia).

Once on the plateau the landscape changes to stunning coastal banksia scrub and provides glimpses of the northern coastline including Mt Brown, Arthurs Peak and Mt Fortescue. Situated a little further east, are the impressive 300m high cliffs of Cape Pillar. This evening enjoy nibbles, followed by a two course dinner prepared by your guides.

Overnight: Three Capes & Tasman Lodge, Tasman Peninsula

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 3 The Cape Hauy Trail - Hobart (approx. 8km - 5hrs)

The Cape Hauy Trail follows the rocky coastline and as the trail climbs, the She Oaks and Banksia's of the lower coastline give way to dry sclerophyll forest.

3 DAY DISCOVERY PACKAGE | THREE CAPES TREK

THE ITINERARY

The walk starts at a beautiful cove and there are some steep sections with stairs that you need to navigate in both directions. There is a steep climb at the start (and end of the walk), but once at the top of the first saddle extensive panoramic views stretch far north past the Forester Coast to Maria Island and south, detailing the ridges of Cape Pillar.

Towards the end, the track follows the cliffs edge, providing thrilling views. The final segment of the trail, before reaching a large plateau, is quite steep and narrow and again care needs to be taken when walking through this section. Once at the end you are able to clearly view the exceptional rock formations of the Candlestick and Totem Pole, large columns of dolerite rocking out of the ocean. Then return via the same route. This afternoon there is an option to visit the Port Arthur Historic Site (not included).

Afterwards, you will travel back to Hobart where the tour finishes.

Please note: Customers wishing to fly out this evening will need to book flights after 6.30pm.

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch
