THE OFFER

Quokkas! Need we say more? Ok, perhaps we should elaborate a little further. Western Australia's great south west is home to some pretty incredible landscapes, from scenic Rottnest Island just off the coast of Perth to the rolling vineyards of the Margaret River wine region. This eight day tour combines both of those in one trip, together with free time in vibrant Perth and Fremantle.

Begin with a ferry ride from Hillary's Boat Harbour to Rottnest Island, enjoying free time to relax on its pristine white beaches, snap a photo or ten with the adorable resident quokkas, or perhaps do as the locals do and explore the island by bicycle. Then, you'll journey south to the stellar Margaret River wine region via Busselton, Yallingup, and the laid-back town of Dunsborough. Stunning lookouts, rocky beaches, and impressive jetties are just the beginning. In Margaret River you'll get to walk highlight sections of the famous 'Cape to Cape Trek', along with some indulgent visits to local wineries and gourmet producers. Returning to Perth, you'll also enjoy a couple of nights at leisure in the grand port city of Fremantle - known for its convict history, beaches and sensational market.

THE ITINERARY

Day 1 Perth, Western Australia

Make your own way to Perth for an early afternoon check-in to the centrally located hotel. Enjoy the evening at leisure to experience some of the many highlights of Perth.

Overnight: Novotel Perth Langley, Perth

Meals included: None

Day 2 Rottnest Island Day Visit

This morning head out to Rottnest Island for the day. Take a short 10-minute stroll from your hotel to the Barrack Street Wharf where you will board the ferry and head out into the Indian Ocean and island paradise of Rottnest. 'Rotto' – or Wadjemup to the Noongar Aboriginal people – has long been the go-to destination for Perth families on holiday, and a coming-of-age promised land for local teens. Although it's only about 19km offshore from Fremantle, this car-free, off-the-grid slice of paradise, ringed by secluded beaches and bays, feels a million miles away. Snap a Quokka selfie, swim in one of the many beautiful bays, or cycle around the island before returning to the mainland by ferry for an evening at leisure in Perth.

Overnight: Novotel Perth Langley, Perth

Meals included: None

Day 3 Perth to Margaret River

This morning, be picked up from the hotel for a tour south towards Margaret River. First stop of the day will be Busselton Jetty. Busselton is a city known for its laid-back vibe, sheltered beach and seasonal humpback whale populations. The beachfront features the 19th-century Busselton Jetty which stretches nearly 2km out to the sea, where on a clear day you can view the coral reef below.

After Busselton, travel onwards to the coastal town of Dunsborough for some quick sightseeing; followed by Meelup Beach, one of the most photographed beaches in Western Australia; Sugarloaf Rock Lookout to view this impressive rock/island; and Canal Rocks just south of Yallingup, where you can enjoy a short walking tour before arriving into Margaret River in the afternoon. Enjoy dinner in the evening with your travel companions at the Margaret River Motel.

Overnight: Margaret River Motel, Margaret River

Meals included: Lunch;Dinner

Day 4 Cape to Cape Highlights

Today is all about nature. Whilst the Margaret River region is best known for its wineries and gourmet produce, it also boasts a spectacular coastline shaped by the constantly pounding Indian Ocean swell. Think deep red granite headlands, pristine white sand beaches, jagged limestone cliffs and turquoise water.

Today use the famous Cape to Cape walk trail to access some of the lesser known and most spectacular sites along the coast. While the walk is not hugely demanding in the physical sense, there will be some walking on uneven surfaces for up to an hour or so at a time. Along the way stand on top of the Wilyabrup sea cliffs, wander through the tranquil Boranup Karri Forest, and take a (summer) swim in Hamelin Bay. With salt spray in the air, and sand between your toes, your knowledgeable guide will ensure you enjoy a memorable day.

THE ITINERARY

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch

Day 5 Margaret River Wine Tour

No trip to Margaret River is complete without some time dedicated to wine and indulgence. Enjoy a later start today, with the opportunity to wander into town for a coffee and a look around, pushing our start time out to a more respectable hour.

There are over 100 wineries in Margaret River and we can't (responsibly) visit them all, but we will take you to some of the big names, as well as our favourites. Our must visit list includes Vasse Felix which was the very first winery in Margaret River, and is still considered one of the very best, Leeuwin Estate, the region's most famous winery, as well as some lesser known boutique producers. For the beer lovers, we've got your back, with a stop at the Cheeky Monkey Brewery for lunch (not included) and a refreshing ale, and we won't forget about the chocoholics.

Some of you may not feel like the need for dinner tonight, so we will leave you to your own devices. It is a very short walk into town from the hotel where you can choose anything from 5 star dining to take away.

Overnight: Margaret River Motel, Margaret River

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 6 Margaret River to Fremantle

After breakfast, depart Margaret River and head out to Ngilgi limestone Cave. This exquisitely decorated cave, with its stunning stalactites, stalagmites, helictites and beautifully coloured shawls, was Western Australia's first tourist attraction. Transfer onwards to Fremantle where you will spend the next 2 nights at leisure.

Under the baking WA sun, Fremantle is a boho harbour town with a sea-salty soul. Like Valparaiso in Chile or Littleton in New Zealand, old-town 'Freo' is a tight nest of streets with an atmospherically faded cache of Victorian and Edwardian buildings. And like any port, the world washes in on the tide and washes out again, leaving the locals buzzing with global zeitgeist. Fremantle thrums with live music, craft-beer bars, boutique hotels, left-field bookshops, Indian Ocean seafood shacks, buskers and beaches – it's a fabulous place to spend a few days.

Overnight: Seashells Fremantle or similar, Fremantle

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Fremantle Free Day

Today is free at leisure to explore the historic city of Fremantle. Notable local highlights include tours of the Fremantle Gaol, Perth's only World Heritage listed site; iconic Cicerello's Restaurant for fish and chips overlooking the boats; or the adjacent Little Creatures Brewery.

Overnight: Seashells Fremantle or similar, Fremantle

Meals included: None

Day 8 Depart Fremantle
