THE OFFER

Cape York is Queensland's last great frontier - a vast expanse of unspoiled wilderness, of dusty dirt roads, wild national parks and sunsets that will stay with you forever. Stretching north of Cairns all the way to the tip of the Australian mainland, it's a bucket list destination best explored by four-wheel drive. To that end, this incredible seven day guided tour is the perfect way to see it.

Departing from Cairns, you'll embark on an adventure few Aussies have even tackled. Visit Thursday Island in the remote Torres Strait, enjoy a refreshing dip in the cool waters of Fruit Bat Falls, visit Bramwell Station - Australia's northernmost cattle station - and marvel at the sunset over the Gulf of Carpentaria. You'll also stop at the colourful Lions Den Hotel, an historic pub established in 1875, together with the aboriginal art galleries of Split Rock. Step back in time in Cooktown, at the mouth of the Endeavour River; travel through the Daintree Rainforest via the rugged Bramwell Track; spot wild crocodiles in Lakefield National Park - and more! Includes a one-way flight between Cairns and Horn Island, along with six nights in either standard or basic accom. (depending on your chosen option), and all national park fees. Are you ready to tick off Cape York?
