PALM COVE • DAINTREE RAINFOREST • COOKTOWN • KURANDA

THE OFFER

It's a common dilemma when travelling - do too much and it doesn't feel like a holiday, but do too little and it feels like a wasted opportunity. That's not going to happen on this trip! A perfect blend of relaxation and adventure, it allows you to embrace the barefoot bliss of Palm Cove and the Tropical North, together with a 4WD discovery tour of the majestic Daintree Rainforest.

Begin with a night at leisure in beautiful Palm Cove, known for its gorgeous palm-lined waterfront and dining scene, and then embark on a small group 4WD tour into the heart of the UNESCO listed rainforest. Marvel at 20,000-year-old aboriginal rock art at Split Rock; delve into the region's heritage at Cooktown, including a stop to view the mangrove-lined Endeavour River from Grassy Hill; and travel along the Bloomfield Track to Cape Tribulation. Along the way you'll witness emerald forest, snaking rivers, and glimpses of the unique wildlife that calls the region home. After returning to Palm Cove, and enjoying some free time, you'll also get to ride the 7.5km-long Skyrail Rainforest Cableway to Kuranda Village, admiring stunning views as you glide metres above the treetops.
