SAGE HOTEL WEST PERTH • DISCOVERY ROTTNEST ISLAND

THE OFFER

It may be the world's most isolated capital city, but Perth has used that to its advantage. It's got a distinct, small town vibe that's wholly its own. From the glittering Perth CBD to the emerald Swan Valley, the olive green Perth Hills to the beautiful white sand beaches and nearby offshore islands, Perth is a city that begs to be explored. This amazing six day package is a chance to do just that.

Immerse yourself in city life while staying at the Sage Hotel West Perth, a four-star property offering contemporary luxury with a historic twist. The hotel incorporates the heritage-listed Walsh Family Residence, built in 1902 and now beautifully restored, into its unique design. You'll also get to enjoy two nights in a gorgeous glamping tent at Discovery Rottneest Island, where you'll get to hang the local quokkas and admire some of the most picturesque beaches you've ever seen. Known as Wadjemup by the indigenous Noongar people, life on Rottneest moves at a relaxed pace. Do as the Perth locals do and explore the island by bicycle, join one of the free guided walking tours, or maybe hire snorkelling gear to experience the diverse underwater beauty. This relaxed getaway includes three nights four-star hotel accom., two nights glamping, and return ferries.
