THE OFFER

Sweet treats, savoury delights, and multi-award-winning whisky are just the tip(ple) of the culinary iceberg that awaits on this seven day gourmet tour of Tasmania. From Hobart to Wineglass Bay, Cradle Mountain to Launceston, this is a foodie tour you'll want to bite into again and again.

Beginning in historic Hobart, you'll embark on a journey through wild landscapes, colourful cities, serene vineyards and so much in between. Explore spectacular Bruny Island, home to a variety of wildlife from fur seals to white wallabies; spot dolphins and more on a wilderness cruise; and taste the finest cheese, honey and oysters the island has to offer at local producers. Delve into the story of UNESCO listed Port Arthur on a guided tour, plus explore the 'Isle of the Dead' on a harbour cruise. Sample handcrafted vodka at Hellfire Bluff Distillery, indulge with a day of food and wine in the celebrated Tamar Valley region, visit Pipers Brook Wines and experience a guided tasting at Devil's Corner Winery. As if that wasn't enough, you'll also visit the famous Bridestowe Lavender Field, Kate's Berry Farm and Cradle Mountain National Park. Ready to take a bite?

THE ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrive Hobart, Tasmania

Make your own way to Hobart for an early afternoon check-in to your centrally located hotel. Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure to experience some of the many highlights of Hobart.

Please note: Hotel check-in is from 3:00pm, however luggage storage facilities are available if you arrive early and want to get stuck into some early exploration of the city.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor Hobart, or similar

Meals included: None

Day 2 Bruny Island

Your adventure begins at 7:30am today as you meet your guide and group at the hotel. You will board the ferry south of Hobart at Kettering for a short 30-minute ferry ride to beautiful Bruny Island. Situated to the south of Hobart, 'Bruny' is home to spectacular, unspoiled natural attractions. Its crisp conditions and reliable rainfall also make it a haven for specialist food producers, which you will come to learn during your journey.

First stop is at The Neck - the narrow strip of land (known as an 'isthmus') that connects North and South Bruny. After climbing 270 stairs, you will be rewarded with a spectacular view at Truganini Lookout. Then join the Bruny Island Wilderness Cruise at Adventure Bay. The custom-built adventure boat is the ideal way to experience the coastline and abundant marine wildlife of the island, with chances to view seals, dolphins, migrating whales and sea birds.

After lunch your sample of Bruny Island's delights continues, when you stop for some of its finest food experiences – Get Shucked Oysters, Bruny Island Cheeses and Bruny Island

Honey.

Board the return ferry back to the Tasmanian 'mainland' and arrive back in Hobart around 6:00pm.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor Hobart, or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 3 Port Arthur and Tasman Peninsula

Today explore the south east of the 'Apple Isle'- the Tasman Peninsula. The stunning natural area encircled with Australia's highest sea cliffs affords panoramic views across the Tasman Sea. One of the best views is at Pirates Bay Lookout where you will stop on your journey. You'll also pass through Eaglehawk Neck and a place known as 'The Dogline', which is part of many fascinating stories on the history of the area, which will be shared by your guide.

Later, a short walk will take you along the sea cliffs to see the fascinating Tasman Arch and Devil's Kitchen rock formations. Perhaps the most famous icon of this region is the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Port Arthur Historic Site where you will have 3-4 hours to explore. Australia's most intact and evocative convict site, Port Arthur spans 100 acres and is home to more than 30 historic buildings and ruins. Your entry includes a complimentary Harbour Cruise around the Isle of the Dead and a guided walking tour with one of the site's expert guides.

It is then onto sampling more of Tasmania's fine culinary offerings at one of Tasmania's premier distilleries – McHenry. Located on Mt. Arthur, a remote location with pristine water and an ideal climate, McHenry is Australia's most southern distillery. Here you enjoy the beautiful surroundings while tasting the family-produced gins and whiskeys.

The final stop for the day is the Hellfire Bluff Distillery where the elegant and smooth handcrafted Vodka is made with potatoes grown on their own land, straight from the paddock to the bottle. The Tasmanian London Dry Gin and the Limoncello liqueur is highly recommended. It's then back to Hobart, arriving around 6:00pm.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor Hobart, or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Wineglass Bay and the East Coast

Your adventure continues today to one of the most beautiful and well-recognised regions of Tasmania – the Freycinet National Park and the highlights of the east coast.

There will be many stops on your journey between Hobart and Launceston today such as morning tea at Kate's Berry Farm. Kate's hugely popular Just Desserts Café, with its mouth-watering menu, overlooks rows of berries across Great Oyster Bay to the world-renowned Freycinet National Park. Wineglass Bay is nestled in the Freycinet National Park, one of Tasmania's first national parks and the jewel in the crown of Tasmania's East Coast. As you enter the Freycinet Peninsula you will be awestruck by the magnificent Hazards mountain range that forms the backdrop.

Walk as a group to the Wineglass Bay Lookout. The moderate uphill walk is one of the Great Short Walks of Tasmania. Once at the top, you are rewarded with that world-famous view of Wineglass Bay and the surrounding national park. Enjoy the moment, take in the views and let your guide help you with those sought-after photographs.

Relax with a lunch break at Honeymoon Bay and if time allows, you will be able to explore other areas of Freycinet National Park such as the Cape Tourville Lighthouse and Sleepy Bay lookout.

You will then depart Freycinet but continue along the east coast, a region renowned for its wine tasting trail. Best known for its Pinot Noir, Riesling and Chardonnay, these wines are typically elegant, crisp and complex. You will stop at the stunning Devil's Corner Winery, overlooking the Hazards Vineyard, Moulting Lagoon and beyond to Freycinet. You will enjoy a guided wine tasting as the expert staff take you on a tasting journey of discovery through cool-climate Pinot Noir, white wine and premium Sparkling. On location, you also have amazingly fresh seafood from Freycinet Marine Farm. This is a great way to complete your day before you settle in for the drive to Launceston.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor or similar, Launceston

Day 5 Tamar Region Wines

Your Tasmanian wine journey continues today in the Tamar Valley. Once voted as one of the top ten wine regions of the world, the state's principal wine-producing is just outside of Launceston. Start your day with a short and refreshing walk to Lillydale Falls, a great stretch of the legs before you settle in for a big day of tastings.

First tasting of the day is Bridestowe Lavender Farm – the world's largest privately-owned Lavender Farm. Bridestowe grows true French Lavender, the only species suitable for both perfumery and cooking. Creating a wide range of beautiful products, from skincare, teas and soaps to lavender pancakes and ice-creams, there is also an apiary on site with unique lavender honey tastings available.

THE ITINERARY

Move onwards into the wine region and for your first stop at Tasmania's most famous and regarded sparkling producer Janz. A short drive from Janz is Pipers Brook, the state's largest family-owned winery where you will be treated to a seated tasting in their architecturally-acclaimed tasting rooms. You will also be treated to a lovely lunch at Nadine's at Pipers serving up fresh Tasmania local fare and hospitality.

After lunch, sample wines from a smaller vineyard, Sinapius. With their small-scale approach and attention to detail, their wines never fail to impress. Return to Launceston with full bellies and big smiles after a day of indulgence.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor or similar, Launceston

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch

Day 6 Cradle Mountain Region

On the last day of your adventure, depart Launceston and travel directly into the mountains to the world-heritage listed Cradle Mountain-Lake St. Clair National Park. Explore the key highlights of your short but amazing visit to this area. Enjoy some short walks, visit Dove Lake with its magnificent views of Cradle Mountain and keep your eyes sharp spotting the local wombats. Enjoy a lunch break in the National Park before departing.

The afternoon is spent enjoying the highlights of the region's delicious tasting trail. With stops at Anvers House of Chocolate, Ashgrove Cheese Farm and Christmas Hills Raspberries sample some of the finest produce of north west Tasmania. Last but certainly not least, visit the working 41 Degrees Salmon and Ginseng Farm before returning to Launceston for your final night.

Overnight: Hotel Grand Chancellor or similar, Launceston

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Depart Launceston

After breakfast, you may wish to wander around the Cataract Gorge or Launceston township before making your own onwards travel plans.

Meals included: Breakfast

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction in which he or she is guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves the group at the end of the tour, they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides in each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village, and offer information on the place visited on the bus, however, they are not required to have specific knowledge on art, architecture, or history. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when particularly required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.
