BAY OF FIRES CONSERVATION AREA • ANSONS BAY • ST HELENS

THE OFFER

A feast for the eyes as well as the soul, Tasmania's Bay of Fires Conservation Area is nothing short of spectacular. Broad strokes of white sand and cerulean water, graceful swirls of olive green heathland, all flecked with fiery orange and grey boulders, it's a destination that begs to be explored one foot after the other. This five day small group walking tour ex Launceston is a chance to do just that.

Begin with a welcome dinner and day at leisure in Launceston, and then put your best foot forward as you journey into the heart of the Bay of Fires. Take in spectacular locations including The Gardens, Eddystone Point Lighthouse, Boulder Point, the summit of Mt William (Wukalina) in the Mt William National Park - and many more! You'll also learn about the abundant birds and wildlife that call the conservation area home, as well as sites of local Aboriginal significance, from the professional tour guides. Package includes four nights quality hotel accommodation, 12 meals including all meals during the walking tour, national park fees, and return transfers from Launceston.
